

Ca. 1/1907

[In corner:] Bring [??] point of encouraging the student to set up a little choice library of his own.

Dear Chile

Yours of Wednesday just at hand. Many thanks for the lovely long letter. They seem to be whirling a "wheel of fortune" in your town and you are apparently getting some of the prizes inasmuch as you are invited out so often.

Well, Chile, I tell you there is a lot of trouble in this world and ma & me have to think how comparatively free we are from it when we have to admit that we have 3 such satisfying "chilluns." The poor Stapletons are loaded to the water's edge with it now. Mrs. Stapleton can only survive a few hours. and a telephone this a.m. from the nurse at Denver ...

2/1907?

"Ode" Saturday

Dear Chile

Yours of Wednesday just at hand. Many thanks for the lovely long letter. They seem to be whirling a "wheel of fortune" in your town and you are apparently getting some of the prizes inasmuch as you are invited out so often.

Well, Chile. I tell you there is a lot of trouble in this world and ~~ma & me~~ ma & me, have to think how comparatively free we are from it when we have to admit that we have 3 such satisfying "chilluns." The poor Stapletons are loaded to the water's edge with it now. Mrs. Stapleton can only survive a few hours. and a telegram this a.m. from the nurse at Denver ...

Stcho that Vira is much worse, come quick.

In the face of Mrs S's death Mr Jillson goes out there leaving tonight.

When Anne saw the telegram she fainted dead away. She won't eat or rest, and wants to go to Vira at once.

She says that she has given up her mother, but Vira's condition, makes her frantic.

Mrs S's relatives are about all sick and in case of her death the brothers from the Klondyke will have to take her to Eau Claire for burial, as Mrs Jillson will have to care for the store & Mr J has to go to D.

The Specialist at Denver says that one lung of Vira is gone & the other is badly affected, so that Mr J may bring her home in a coffin.

... states that "Vira [?] is much worse, come quick."

In the face of Mrs. S's death Mr. Jillson goes out there leaving tonight.

When Anne saw the telegram she fainted dead away. She won't eat or rest, and wants to go to Vira at once.

She says that she has given up her mother, but Vira's condition makes her frantic.

Mrs. S's relatives are about all sick and in case of her death the brothers from the Klondyke will have to take her to Eau Claire for burial, as Mrs. Jillson will have to care for the store & Mr. J has to go to D.____

The specialist at Denver says that one lung of Vira's is gone & the other is badly affected, so that Mr. J. may bring her home in a coffin.

3

Ma thinks we had better send on what we have in stock in the matter of your paper at once so I send it on tonight.

Now the pamphlets from M—got here the 13th & here I write to get back to M— from that date. Now don't fail to send them <sup>to M—</sup> on good time or there will be a fine — also state, that they are from C. E. Jackson of Ovid Mich. who ordered them.

There is a lot of good things in them and they cover the ground pretty well. There are 3 pages I copied out from some that Ma got in Lansing; also a press cutting with a nice thing from Eugene Field as a peroration for you, if you see fit. Which I cut out of the Free Press.

Just heard that Cecil Hunter is in somewhat bad health and it is quite likely that she will go west

Ma thinks we had better send on what we have in stock in the matter of your paper at once so I send it on tonight.

Now the pamphlets [?] from M— got here the 13th & have 2 weeks to get back to M— from that date. Now don't fail to send them to M— in good time or there will be a fine -- also state that they are from C. E. Jackson of Ovid Mich who ordered them.

There is a lot of good things in them and they cover the ground pretty well. These are 3 pages I copied out from some that Ma got in Lansing; also a press cutting with a nice thing from Eugene Field as a peroration [?] for you if you see fit, which I cut out of the Free Press.

Just heard that Cecil Hunter is in somewhat bad health and it is quite likely that she will go west
...

at the end of the year Teach — Duner boy, the Mecca of all the Consumptively inclined —

In return to the paper, I think you can make no mistake to advise teachers not to teach English too far ahead of the scholars. Your 10th grade probably has not, as yet, arrived at the stage you are acting on ~~so~~.

It strikes me forcibly that there is one work that is entirely neglected in bringing up the child mind <sup>to the sticking point</sup> and that is the one ~~of~~ that is the favorite of Mrs. Edison viz: "The Toilers of the Sea" He says it's the greatest thing on earth. It is surely a fetcher for boys.

This subject is quite foreign to me I find. as I have no experience in teaching it

... at the end of the year & teach -- Duner [?] way, the Mecca of all the consumptively inclined.

In relation to the paper, I think you can make no mistake to advise teachers not to teach English too far ahead of the scholars. Your 10th grade
probably has not, as yet, arrived at the stage you are acting on.

It strikes me forcibly that there is one work that is entirely neglected in bringing up the child mind to the sticking point and that is the one that is the favorite of Mrs. Edison, viz:
"The Toilers of the Sea." He says it's the greatest thing on earth. It is surely a fetcher for boys.

This subject is quite foreign to me I find, as I have no experience in teaching it ...

The point that one teacher makes in saying that a teacher needs to be "saturated" with the subject to teach English ~~well~~ is well, so well taken.

In talking with Bowman he said "saturated" a number of times. I hope it isn't a chestnut out your way as "along these lines" &c. &c. ~~and~~ down this way.

Use it at the proper time.
It is a corner stone. Like spring to day all but the birds fields about bare, Ben sails the 20th from Baltimore Dr Jennies Becky is a dear cat, very loving, like a good many gentle tempered humble, Ma went to Lansing for 2 days this week, I kept her back,

Back, well set w quilt
Bx. Bx.
(Popsy)
Carp on M-L
Good the better
one right away
cut lining
for it

... the point that one teacher makes in saying that a teacher needs to be “saturated” with the subject to teach English well, is well taken.

In talking with Borshan [?] he said "saturated" a number of times. I hope it isn't a chesnut out your way, as "along those lines" etc. is down this way.

Use it at the proper time. It is a corner stone. Like spring today all but the birds. Fields about bare. Ben sails the 20th from Baltimore for [??]. Becky is a dear cat, very living, like a good many quick tempered people. Ma went to Lansing for 2 days this week. I kept old Beck.

Well got to quit
Bye. Bye.
(Popsy)