

Hudon for Beough

Richfield Oct. 25 1863

Dear Aunt Emily

I received your long looked for letter a few days ago but had almost given up ever hearing from you again better late than never We are all well and hope this will find you and family the same It is more healthy now than It has been for a long time We are now having the nicest kind of weather & very best of roads are you living in your new house wish I could see you in your new home how does Mattie like it I know Lizzy & Charly likes It for they thought there was no place like Michigan (and I presume they are right) Mother and Mary are drying apples for sale but I can't see It they will get rich I presume but not this year

Richfield Oct 25, 1863

Dear Aunt Emily,

I received your long looked for letter a few days ago but had almost given up ever hearing from you again. Better late than never. We are all well and hope this will find you and being the same. It is more healthy now than it has been for a long time. We are now having the nicest kind of weather & very best of roads. Are you living in your new house. Wish I could see you in your new home. How does Mattie like it. I know Lizzy & Charly likes it for they thought there was no place like Michigan (and I presume they are right).
Mother and Mary are drying apples for sale but I can't see if they will get rich I presume but not this year.

William is making his fortune by selling wood which brings twelve shillings per cord and tell Lamott that father has bought a mate to his colt and has now got a gay team he thinks they will surpass anything he ever had I wish he could have a ride after them William has got no horse of his own now and he feels very lonesome without one but I guess he will go without a horse this winter for they are very high and scarce Charley is in Cleveland at the invalid hospital and is getting better he was at home last week and feeling well Dick Sweet has been home on a twenty days furlough he had a gay time after his old fashion his folks did not say much about the Saddle but I presume they thought it was all right in Dick but to cap all Harry has been stealing part of a harness he took it off a horse at the Party Fair time and after a week

William is making his fortune by selling wood which brings twelve shillings per cord and tell Lamott that father has bought a mate to his colt and has now got a gay team. He thinks they will surpass anything he ever had. I wish he could have a ride after them. William has got no horse of his own now and he feels very lonesome without one but I guess he will go without a horse this winter for they are very high and scarce. Charley is in Cleveland at the invalid hospital and is getting better. He was at home last week and feeling well. Dick Sweet has been home on a twenty days furlough. He had a gay time after [?] his old fashion. His folks did not say much about the Saddle but I presume they thought it was all right in Dick but to cap all Harry has been stealing part of a harness. He took it off a horse at the Party Fair time and after a week ...

he went up town with said harness and his horse and the man saw it & spoke to the Gentleman about it.

It was Mr. Bang's harness, he got it again the Constable went after it. I guess he will be as rough as Dick is & that is bad enough but his folk do not appear to mind it as I should think they would.

I have been writing to Emma today but whether she will ever answer do not know I am very sorry that she has listened to such lies but so it is but the Lord knows that I never told no person such a story and I hope to rectify the mistake if possible have you herd from her lately? Oh Aunt Emily I at last have been to Cleveland and spent a week & such a gay time as I had no longer can tell he he he Oh Lord how easy some folks are fooled not? Think I shall try it again some time (Glory)

... he went up town with said harness and his horse and the man saw it & spoke to the Gentleman about it. It was Mr. Bang's [?] harness; he got it again. The Constable went after it.
I guess he will be as rough as Dick is & that is bad enough but his folk do not appear to mind it as I should think they would.

I have been writing to Emma today but whether she will ever answer I do not know.
I am very sorry that she has listened to such lies but so it is but the lord knows that I never told no person such a story and I hope to rectify the mistake if possible.
Have you herd from her lately. Oh Aunt Emily I at last have been to Cleveland and spent a week & such a gay time as I had in [??] can tell ha ha ha. Oh lord how easy some folks are fooled not. Think I shall try it again some time (Glory).

well I feel rather blue but that is all the fashion I visited Helen Schwert last week and she enquired about you and sent love to you she is yet keeping house for George he does not yet married Lord I wish he was not quite so old I would pick in but I guess it would take two to make a match (but what cares I) — I guess you will think that I am blue and so I am I and Mary have been getting some new silk dresses they are not made yet they are plain black I think we shall make them this week I talk of buying a sewing machine and make vests this winter I may do that and I may learn the milliner trade I must do some thing to keep out of mischief well I guess I will quit this awful writing for I do not think that you can read this but I cannot do any better to night please excuse all errors and accept love to all and all write soon from your aff Niece Mattie Tell Mother to write

Well I feel rather blue but that is all the fashion. I visited Helen Schwert [?] last week and she enquired about you and sent love to you.
She is yet keeping house for George. He does not get married.
Lord I wish he was not quite so old I would pick in but I guess it would take two to make a match (but what cares I). I guess you will think that I am blue and so I am. I and Mary have been getting some new silk dresses. They are not made yet. They are plain black. I think we shall make them week. I talk of buying a sewing machine and make vests this winter. I may do that and I may learn the milliner trade. I must do something to keep out of mischief. Well I guess I will quit this awful writing for I do not think that you can read this, but I cannot do any better tonight.
Please excuse all errors and accept this as a token of Love. Love to one and all write soon. Tell Mother to write. From your aff Niece Mattie.c